

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

The Poet's Lady.
Her every tone is music's own.
Like those of young flowers;
And something more than melody
Dwells ever in her words;
The coloring of her heart are they,
And from her lips each flows
As one may see the bird's beak
Forth issue from the rose.

Affections are as thoughts to her,
The measures of her hours;
Her feelings have the fragrance
Of the freshness of young flowers;
And lovely passions, changing oft,
So fill her, she appears
The image of themselves by turns,
The ideal of past years.
—Edward Coate Pinckney.

The Richmond German.

The third dance given this winter by the Richmond German in Masonic Temple last evening might have been the first in point of the interest it excited and the large attendance of the most fashionable contingent of Richmond society. Decorations in white and green had more than a hint of springtime in their freshness and fragrance. Colonel L. L. Stern led with Miss Lina Scheide, who looked extremely well in a lovely toilet of white messaline, trimmed with lace and pearl ornaments.

Among those scheduled to be present were Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Dyer, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Levin Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nelson Carter, Mr. and Mrs. J. Jordan Leake, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bolling, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Willard, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Frazier, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. McCabe, Mr. and Mrs. B. Stewart Hume, Mr. and Mrs. Garret B. Wall, Mrs. Claude A. Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. Eppa Hinton, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Leigh, Mr. and Mrs. Adolphus Blair, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Coke, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. T. Moncreux Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Battle, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Dyer, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Blair, Dr. and Mrs. Charles T. Carrington, Mr. and Mrs. J. Scott Parrish, Miss Branch, Mrs. James Allison, Mrs. J. Mason Miller, Mrs. James Walker, Misses Caroline Reynolds, Julia Jones, Page Royall, Elsie Lindsey, Roberta Smith, Roberta Trice, Nora Leary, Helen Christian, Nellie Hamilton, A. Grant, Kate and Posie Meredith, Elizabeth Frazier, Maud Morgan and Sue Spilman; Messrs. George Melville Reid, Kirkwood Mitchell, Allen Potts, John Currie, Charles J. Anderson, Archer Anderson, Carter, Branch, Harrison, and Lewis H. Blair, Robert B. Campbell, Robert G. Cabell, Pope Nash, Leslie H. Reed, Dewey Cooke, Watkins Ellerson, Beverly Fleet, James W. Sail for Cuba.

Miss Elizabeth Brader, of this city, and Miss Edna C. Lee, of Fredericksburg, sail from Norfolk today for Cuba, to visit their brothers, who are in the service of the United States Army, and are stationed at the same place.

Miss Brader will be greatly missed by her friends in this city, where she is very popular.

To Attend German.

The Christmas german at the University of Virginia is always attended by a round of guests in honor of the visiting young ladies. Though the german falls on a later date this year, the week will be full of interesting social events.

Miss Brant Whit left yesterday to be the guest of Miss Elsie Miles at the University for about ten days. She will participate in all the festivities.

On Calais Sands

By ANDREW LANG.

Other selections from this author, his portrait, autograph and biographical sketch, have already been printed in this series.

On Calais Sands the gray began,
Then rosy red above the gray;
Thorn with many a scarlet van
Leaped, and the world was glad with May!
The little waves along the bay
Broke white upon the shelving strands;
The sea-mews flitted white as they
On Calais Sands!

On Calais Sands must man with man
Wash honor clean in blood to-day;
On spaces wet from waters van
How white the flashing rapids play,—
Parry, riposte! and lunge! The fray
Shifts for a while, then mournful stands
The Victor: life ebbs fast away
On Calais Sands!

On Calais Sands a little space
Of silence, then the splash and spray,
The sound of eager waves that ran
To kiss the perfumed locks astray,
To touch these lips that say "Nay,"
To dally with the helpless hands,
Till the deep sea in silence lay
On Calais Sands!

Between the lilac and the may
She waits her love from alien lands;
Her love is colder than the clay
On Calais Sands!

This series began in The Times-Dispatch Sunday, Oct. 11, 1913. One is published each day.

man's Club, his subject being "Brown- ing."

Dr. Whitman is a brilliant speaker, and presented his subject in a most charming manner. His clear, beautiful voice, his purity of diction, his eloquence of expression, made an impression on the minds of his hearers that will always be linked in association with a very pleasant afternoon.

Miss Kate Winston poured tea, and Mrs. W. E. Evans served coffee at the reception following the lecture.

Among the guests of the evening were: Miss Mary Thomas, Mrs. Lily Wilson Handin, Dr. Frazier and Mrs. Reed, of Baltimore.

Wednesday afternoon the History Class will meet, with Miss Helen Stockell as chairman. The subject for the afternoon will be, "The Massacre of 1622; and the Revocation of the London Company's Charter."

On Thursday evening an address of much interest will be delivered at the Young Men's Christian Association, the speaker being Mr. W. S. Crockett and the subject, "Scott and the Scott Land."

Mr. Crockett is a delightful speaker, and the subject should appeal strongly to all lovers of Scotland and its bards.

Bridal Party Entertained.
Among the pleasant entertainments in honor of Miss Elizabeth Hunter and Mr. George Ambrose Allen, who were wedded last evening, was a luncheon to the bridal party, given yesterday by Miss Carrie Lettich, of South Third Street. Beautiful table decorations were in American Beauty roses and ferns.

Miss Lettich was assisted in entertaining by Miss Harry Randolph Wayt, Mr. John D. Stayman and Miss Mary Ellett.

Annual Board Meeting.
The annual meeting of the board of managers of the Sheltering Arms Hospital was held yesterday at noon. A large number of members were present. The election of officers resulted as follows:

Mrs. Joshua Peterson, president; Miss Constance W. Peterson, first vice-president; in place of Mrs. John H. Southall, resigned; Miss Frances Scott, second vice-president; Mrs. L. B. Janney, third vice-president; Mrs. E. T. Robinson, fourth vice-president; Miss Ellen Wade, recording secretary; Mrs. Charles P. Lee, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. George T. King, treasurer.

Mrs. J. B. Kidd was appointed chairman for the year of the house committee. Miss George Blankenship and Miss Sallie Anderson were designated as the house committee for the ensuing month. Mrs. H. W. Bassett was made chairman of the sick committee.

At Ash Wednesday falls this year on February 13th, Tuesday, February 12th, will be observed as founders' day.

In the Home of Mr. King.
All those who are interested in the work of the Sheltering Arms Hospital are cordially invited to attend a silver tea that will be given for the benefit of the hospital, from 5 to 7 P. M., Friday, in the home of Mrs. C. T. King, No. 617 West Grace Street.

Finch-Fox.
A pretty but quiet wedding took place in Hanover county on the evening of January 7th at 7 o'clock in the home of the bride, Miss E. Nelson Fox, when she became the wife of Mr. George M. Finch. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Davidson, of Richmond.

The bride was given in a handsome tailor suit of green, with hat and gloves to match, and carried a beautiful bouquet of white roses and maidenhair ferns. She wore a necklace of real pearls and a brooch which belonged to her mother, who was Miss De Besselt, of France.

Miss Fox is the youngest daughter of the late Captain Richard Fox, of Hanover, near Ashland, and is a niece of the late Dr. Fox. She also has many relatives and friends in this city.

After receiving the congratulations of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Finch left for a Northern tour, and on their return will reside in Rustburg, Va., where the groom is a prosperous merchant. They will be at home after January 20th.

Was Great Success.
The lady board of managers of the Infants' Home, on Church Hill, desire to express to the friends of the institution appreciation for their generous response on Donation Day last week. Large supplies of fuel, groceries, money, and much-needed articles, were received, and will be put to good use. The day was in all respects the most successful in the history of the institution.

Personal Mention.
Mrs. John Swanson, of Danville, is a guest at the Executive Mansion.

Dr. and Mrs. George Green, whose marriage occurred on Wednesday last, and who spent a part of their honeymoon in this city, have returned to Norfolk and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Williams. Mrs. Green was before her marriage, Miss Lydia Hardy Williams.

Mrs. C. E. Sydnor, of South Third Street, has returned from a visit to her mother near Baltimore.

Mrs. S. J. Kendrick, of Yashli, Va.

Lizzie Pace, Mr. Larry, (J. Mr. George Pace, Mrs. Mary Lawrence and again, after her recent spell of indisposition.

Mr. and Mrs. C. King, of Nineteenth Street, very delightfully entertained a number of their young friends Thursday night in honor of Miss Ida Morrison, of Petersburg, who is spending the winter with them.

Musical games served to while away the time. At 11 o'clock the guests were invited into the dining-room to partake of a sumptuous repast, after which the merry crowd dispersed, having spent a most enjoyable evening.

Among those present were Misses Marie Major, Clara Bailey, Louise Lawrence, Myrtle Major, Inez Morrison, Carrie Bailey, Messrs. Malcolm Peters, Carroll Brauer, C. C. King, Larry Peters, Roy King, Barrie King, and Mr. Peters, Sr.

Everything that heart could wish had been supplied with which to make Christmas a time of joy and festivity and merry-making, and so the day began.

Later in the day Mrs. Tinsley went out on the lawn to assist her little grandsons with their fireworks. While one of the boys, little Frankie, was standing by the side of his grandmother, who was in a stooping position, fixing a fire, a large salute, held by the little boy, exploded, hitting the little fellow's hand and fatally injuring the grandmother.

The whole load struck her in the face. Although it was an ugly wound, no one seemed to realize the worst. She was taken to her home in Richmond the next day, and despite all medical science, looking for her in vain.

Mr. and Mrs. Tinsley, who have been residents of this locality less than two years, they have made many friends and are held in the highest esteem by all who know them, and the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community via theirs. Little Frankie's hand is doing very nicely.

Miss Maud Merritt, of Swansboro, has been spending some time at Rio Vista, the guest of her cousin, Miss Estelle Baughan, of that place.

Mrs. James T. Eubank, of Westhampton Park, left last Sunday for Manlin, where she expects to spend a week with friends.

Mr. Pickles, of Ridge, had with him on last Sunday his brother, Mr. D. E. Pickles, and family, of South Pine Street, Richmond.

Mrs. Leloy Anderson and Mrs. Sturdevant, of Richmond, spent last Saturday with Mrs. J. T. Eubank, of Westhampton Park.

Miss Temple Blackburn, of Ridge, has been confined to her home by sickness for the past week.

Miss Little Baughan, who has been quite sick in her home, near Westhampton Park, is reported as being somewhat improved.

Miss Emma C. Low, of Brooklyn, N. Y., president of the National Alliance, will address the branch alliances of Highland Springs and Richmond Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Abby A. Peterson, of Boston, who addressed the branches two years ago, will accompany Miss Low.

At a recent meeting of the alliance at the home of Mrs. E. S. Reed a very interesting paper was read and views shown of places of historical interest in and near Boston. The next meeting of the alliance will be held at the Manor House, with Mrs. E. S. Reed, January 21st.

Mr. and Mrs. John McP. Cooke returned Thursday from a pleasant visit of several weeks to friends in King William county. Master Lewis N. C. Bowens also returned the same day.

Mrs. McDowell and sister, Miss Izora DeWolf, were recently very pleasantly entertained at tea by the very interesting family. In reference to the guests' interest in foreign lands and customs, the dainty menu consisted mainly of Hungarian dishes, the novelty of which was appreciated by their delighted guests.
